(ESE)

presents the seminar on

“Interest Rate Risk and Asset-Liability Management in Banks”

hosted by: Oesterreichische Nationalbank

Date: 27 - 29 September 2023

Venue: Vienna, Austria

OBJECTIVES

The seminar aims at explaining key aspects of interest rate risk within asset liability management (ALM) in banks. The two core pillars of ALM, the economic value of equity (EVE) and net interest income (NII) concepts are covered, and the differences of fixed-rate, floating-rate and non-maturing products are outlined. Additionally, the widely used method for internal pricing and steering called Funds Transfer Pricing (FTP) is introduced. Regulatory aspects, such as Interest Rate Risk in the Banking Book (IRRBB) guidelines and the new Basel III framework are discussed along with most recent developments in interest rate risk management, such as negative interest rates and behavioral modeling of bank customers.

TARGET GROUP

Primarily banking supervisors (micro-prudential) or staff members from the financial stability sector (macro-prudential) from Central Banks or National competent authorities (NCAs) in Europe, who have already gained some experience in the field of the title topic and are interested in deepening their knowledge and sharing their experience with other staff members.

FORMAT

Learning methods of this training include presentations of theoretical concepts, computer live-simulations, problem-solving exercises designed to leverage ALM concepts, case studies on interest rate risk and asset-liability management (ALM) as well as discussions with experts. The seminar is designed to be a dynamic and interactive learning experience. An expert from Oesterreichische Nationalbank updates on recent regulatory developments relating to the Basel III framework. A former Erste Bank ALM manager shares first-hand experiences from a practitioner's point of view. Participants should bring a laptop. The seminar will be held in English.

SPEAKERS

The seminar will be delivered by two seasoned industry experts in risk management and ALM with a combined executive experience of 50+ years, Prof. Dr. Fidelio Tata and Dr. Tibor Dudás. In addition, an expert from the Oesterreichische Nationalbank will discuss regulatory practice and implications on interest rate risk and asset liability management.
